

Curriculum Project Time line

November 2000	Recruit institutions from NAPFSC membership to conduct curriculum focus groups at their campus.
December 2000	Send focus group leaders the protocol and output sheets.
January - March 8, 2001	Focus groups convene and complete output form
May 15, 2001	Output form and meeting transcript deadline. First notice of national conference.
June 16, 2001	Output forms reviewed and used to create questions for second focus group output form. Contact advisory committee and have them review findings and complete first draft of national conference agenda considering the process.
June 23, 2001	First draft of second output form completed and sent to advisory committee for review
July 12, 2001	Deadline for advisory committee to submit second output form revisions
Aug - Sept. 15	Focus groups reconvene, complete second output form
October 6, 2001	Second output form and meeting transcript deadline
October 10-13	Advisory committee reviews second set of findings. Confirm existing draft of the National conference agenda.
November	National conference with representatives from institution focus groups
December 2001	Findings reported to funders
Spring 2002-Ongoing.	Institutions offer new sustainable forestry course(s) to graduate students